

FENCING RULES

ADOPTED AT A GENERAL MEETING,

May 3d, 1901

FOILS

Foil competition shall be conducted by three, five or seven judges (one of whom shall act as director) for each bout, who shall be experienced Amateur Fencers, selected from different clubs, if possible, and whose decision shall be final and without appeal. There shall also be a timer, who shall time the bouts in accordance with rule three.

Each contestant shall fence a bout with every other contestant, except when the total number of entries for finals exceeds seven, in which case semifinals shall be held. The contestants shall be divided by lot into sections of from four to six each, and the two highest men in each section shall meet in the finals.

Each bout shall consist of four minutes actual fencing, and contestants shall change positions after two minutes.

Contestants shall come on guard, in the middle of the space, at the command of a judge. In case the judges cannot decide, contestants shall meet for an extra assault of two minutes duration, changing sides at the end of one minute.

Each judge shall make his award without consulting his fellow judges, taking into account the general bearing of the competitors, the number and value of the touches, and the general form shown in defence and attack. The majority vote of the judges shall decide the winner of the assault to whom shall be given one point.

Touces shall count only when made upon the body, within the limits bounded by the collar of the fencing jacket, the median line, the hip, and a line drawn from the hip to the posterior limit of the armpit around the front of the arm and along the crest of the shoulder to the collar. A touch on any part of the boundary lines shall count.

The competitor attacked should parry. If a stop thrust be made it shall only count in favor of the giver, provided he be not touched at all.

A touch whether fair or foul invalidates the riposte.

A touch is of no value when the point is twisted on to the body after the slap of the foil.

The judges must stop a corps-a-corps as soon as made.

A disarmament is of no value. A touch immediately following a disarmament counts.

A point scored from a thrust started with the elbow behind the body (jab thrusts) shall not count.

Each contestant shall fence with the same hand throughout the bout.

Competitors shall wear clean white fencing suits. The jacket of each competitor must be covered with chamois within lines described where touches count. (see rule 5.)

Contestants shall fence within a marked space of twenty feet long and thirty-six inches wide, with a mark plainly indicating the middle. When a contestant oversteps these limits a judge shall stop the bout and each judge shall award a touch to the opponent of the man overstepping these limits, and the director shall start the contestants again, in the middle of the marked space.

Foil blades shall not exceed thirty-four inches in length.

Contestants must acknowledge all touches in an audible voice. If a contestant persistently fails to acknowledge touches, the judges may award two touches to his opponent for each offence.

DUELLING SWORDS.

Duelling sword competitions shall be conducted by three or five judges for each bout, who shall be experienced Amateur Fencers, selected from different clubs, if possible, and whose decision shall be final and without appeal.

Each contestant shall fence a bout with every other contestant for one touch. Each touch shall count one point. A judge, upon seeing a touch, shall stop the bout, and thereupon a vote shall be taken. A touch shall be awarded only upon the agreement of a majority of the judges. Neither judges nor contestant shall discuss the touches made or claimed, nor shall any comment be made upon them.

Sword tips shall be chalked merely to aid the judges in arriving at a decision; a chalk mark is not conclusive evidence of a touch.

The contestant receiving the lowest number of touches shall be declared the winner, the next lowest second, and so on.

A touch on any part of the adversary counts.

A disarmament is of no value. A touch immediately following a disarmament counts.

If both contestants are touched simultaneously, the judges shall declare a touch against each man. If, however, it is clear to the majority of the judges that one touch is perceptibly ahead of the other, the touch shall be considered good.

The diameter of the bell-guard shall not exceed five inches, and the blade shall not be more than thirty-four inches long. Each competitor shall wear a dark fencing suit and dark gloves.

SABRE

A bout shall be for a total of seven touches, each touch to count one point. In addition, the judges may award any part of three points for form, to each contestant. Cut or thrust on any part of the body above the hips shall count, and the limitation of space shall not be imposed, nor shall there be any restriction, as to color of costume.

Sabre blades shall not be more than thirty-three inches long.

The judges shall have power to prohibit the use of any unusual guard, which may give a competitor an advantage over his adversary.
